

THE EDGE

TO: THE EDGE STAFF
FROM: THE EDGITOR-IN-CHIEF

SUBJECT: POLITICALLY CORRECT PARTY LANGUAGE

Wednesday, as you know, is New Year's Eve. And although we encourage you to, as the kids say, "have fun," we caution you to avoid using offensive language when referring to your body's disgusting response to alcoholic overindulgence.

I am referring, of course, to the act of peristaltic discharge.

Under no circumstances should you use the "v" word when describing this event. Or the "p" word. Or even the "b" word.

Instead, please limit your vocabulary to the following list of approved phrases:

Ork

Choom

Sponge

Chunder

Woof

Defood

Shout at your shoes

Chew backward

Feed your young

Bark at ants

Laugh at the carpet

Talk on the big white

telephone

Gack

Un-eat

Honk

Hork

Harf

Yabble

Yeech

York

Reverse drink

Technicolor yodel

Ride the regurgitron

Call the dinosaurs

Spill the groceries

Drive the porcelain

bus

Make street pizza

Meet your friends,

Ralph and Earl

Negative chug

Decorate the pavement

Whistle carrots

Bring it up for a vote

Feed the fish

Thank you, and have a chunder-free New Year.
